Facilitating Your Remote Team Through the Storm

Delivered Virtually Via Zoom: August 19, 2020 2:30pm-4:00pm EST

Workshop Overview

Team, Project and Program Leaders will be equipped with tools for managing challenging behaviours, resentments and conflict within teams.

Workshop Outcomes:

- Clarity as to what storming looks like in a virtual environment
- How to review and redefine your teams operating guidelines
- Understanding and practice conducting a "needs and offers" exercise to mitigate unproductive team dynamics
- Review of three communication tools that enhance trust between remote team members

Workshop Details

Date: August 19, 2020

Time: 2:30pm - 4:00pm EST

Register: email info@facilitationfirst.com

Location: Zoom link to be provided. Download this application for free at Zoom.us

Fee: $149 + tax. Want to join Facilitating Highly Productive Remote Teams at 1:00pm? Attend them both for $200 + tax

Maximize Your Learning Experience

To ensure that everyone can fully participate in the workshop, all participants are asked to join 15 minutes before the workshop for a "technical check-in". After securely admitting you to the workshop, we will ensure your audio and video are functioning correctly. Please note that participants are expected to share their video to ensure an optimum learning environment.

About Your Trainer: Janelle Van Halst

Janelle's career began in 1985 and she has gained a wealth of practical experience and knowledge in training and consulting, management and sales. Since 1992 she has been dedicated to training and her consulting clients, which include an impressive array of fortune 500 companies, emerging businesses and not-for- profit organizations. Janelle has amassed over 3000 days and delivering world-class workshops and facilitating high stakes meetings for her clients, including over 350 hours delivering in a virtual classroom.

This extensive practical experience compliments her Adult Education Diploma, Major in Marketing in Business Administration and Canadian Sales Professional certification with distinction. Janelle is also a senior facilitator for the Canadian Management Centre.