Foundational Facilitation Skills Workshops

Meetings are the lifeblood of any organization. A well-run meeting creates alignment, clarity and motivates a group to action. Bad meetings lead to frustration, distraction and a disengaged staff.

Did you know that more than half of all meetings are reported to be either unproductive or unnecessary?

Here are the facts: With a single upper management meeting costing on average $1,317 in salaries alone, organizations with 40 or more managers are losing over $800,000/year due to unproductive meetings.¹

Top Reasons Meetings Fail to Achieve Results

- Meeting participants are resistant to or don't understand the purpose of the meeting
- An unclear, overloaded, or non-existent agenda
- A poor decision making process results in lack of buy-in and the need to re-visit again and again
- Real issues/hidden agendas are not surfaced
- Participation is not well managed - some dominate while others don't contribute at all
- Dysfunctional behaviours are not addressed
- Too many or the wrong attendees
