

Facilitating Through Conflict

Delivered Via Zoom Over Two Half Days: April 12 & 13, 2021 1pm-5pm EST

Ask meeting facilitators what they fear most when leading discussions and they'll tell you - conflict. Yet healthy disagreement helps groups see problems from new perspectives, make better decisions, and build trust. So how can we harness the strengths of conflict while limiting damage such as not achieving meeting outcomes, damaging rapport, and shutting down conversations prematurely?

This program directly addresses the sources of conflict - including you - and provides methods to prevent or facilitate through them. Explore your conflict behavioral style, learn how to mitigate client sabotage, and practice using tools and techniques to deploy when conflict erupts amongst group members.

Participants will build on the learning from their foundational facilitation skills course(s) by taking a deeper dive into proactive and reactive techniques for managing specific disruptive behaviors.

Please note: Participants must have completed either the one-day Facilitating Meetings That Work or the two-day Facilitating Meetings with Ease (or comparable) workshop to enroll in this course

The Learning Opportunity:

- Gain a clear understanding of effective techniques and behaviors to facilitate through conflict
- Discover your conflict style and how it can either contribute to or help minimize conflict
- Practice the three-step intervention process for redirecting dysfunctional behaviour
- Arm yourself with tools for identifying and managing resistance
- Receive personal feedback and coaching from a 'Master' meeting facilitator and learning peers
- Practice new tools in a safe environment
